

Sunshine Committee's Fu

Rog
Patterson

MARION LANDING

Vivian Waite reports their mystery dinner fundraiser added a much appreciated 600 bucks to the Sunshine Committee coffers. Gordon Herrick's "Honky Tonk Homicide" skit, with a cast of thousands made up by Betty Kraus, Charlie and Eddie Mock, Jim Pohlers, Connie and Les Rowe as well as Fran and Frank Szutar, was a hit-and-a-half made completely believable by Ed Gorsky's fabulous refurbished scenery. With a little help from KFC, Rich Toneske's volunteer team prepared and served the 4-course dinner between thespian interruptions. No, I couldn't figure out whodunit, either.

Exercise that's all wet

Not only can you be swimming or walking pool laps for your exercise, but this time of year means even more choices. Having warmed up indoors, Dotty Bouchet's Watercize gang continues to loosen up in the pool on Mondays

Betsy Ross visit
Yes indeed, per Pam's arrangements, it really was that Betsy Ross who visited Marion Landing recently. She let us in on her astonishing life and loves, outliving three husbands while coping with General George Washington's concept of the original American flag along the way. Connie Gay's wonderful performance earned her a standing ovation.

Search Team pleases Capt. Terrell

Capt. Tom Terrell complimented Mary Callahan and the Marion Landing Search Team for their performance in a recent surprise drill. Without any notice, the system worked smoothly and efficiently, backup personnel filled in as anticipated and the "Wanderer" was found despite his unexpected appearance and performance.

PHOTO BY ROG PATTERSON

Betsy Ross tells her audience about problems she had with General George Washington's original design sketch for Old Glory.

D
Did y was no
of limou
well-to-g word m one who into fires ers.

Those

Call 352
museum

Y

Health Bro
5400 SW

E
M T TH
Se

G